POETRY.

THE BAPPLED CHAMPION.

I could be changing of our town—
I've licked room a dozen:
I started in on Airred Brown
An Airred's city cousin:
I've licked 'em all exceptin' one.
There's nothin' that I'd ruther
Be doin than to get it done—
But Pudge is Rosy's brother.

Pudge Jones is twicet as big as me, Bur just the same I'd whip him. I'd lead my left, then bend my knee An' whirl my foot an' trip him! But when Pudge double-dares me i I always haf to mosey— I sometimes whin I'd never knew That he was kin to Rosy.

Atv. no' She min't my girl at all!

I see her at th' parties.

Them other fellers has their girls—
Th' crany bunch o' smarties!

You bet I've licked 'em, every one!

My left swing is a twister,
An' long age I'd made Pudge run,
But—Rosy is his sister.

Aw, peliaw! Doggone it, now! I am not!
I ain't at all her feller.
Th' last hoy told me that, he got
A whack right on th' smeller!
I've whipped lots higger boys 'n me—
Some run as' told my mother.
An' I can whip Pudge Jones—but he—
Well he is Rosy's brother.
